Useful Household Hrticles

The attention of every housekeeper in this section is called to the articles named below, all of which are useed almost every day in the year. They are the best that can be bought anywhere, and when the Frank Owens Hardware Co. recommends an article you know it's the best that money will buy:

Universal Food Choppers Enterprise Meat Cutters Enterprise Lard Presses Butcher Knives, Fire Shovels, Pokers, Claws, Fire Guards, Scoop Shovels, Axes and Axhandles. **

The prices are too low to mention in print there are no figures small enough to fit the prices we have marked on them. But the smallness of the price does not diminish the value of the article at all.

THE GRAVE IS EMPTY.

Some Intimate That the Alleged Forger Merrick Is Not Dead-His Wife Remarried.

Princeton, Ky., Dec. 1.-There have been more sensational developments in the Merrick forgery case. The newly made grave of Merrick is empty, and no one can conjecture why this is so.

ago, charged with having forged the eral. name of his firm, R. U. Kevil & Sons, to checks on banks in Illinois and Missouri. The fact that he was a forger was disclosed in depositions which accompanied his wife's petition for a divorce, otherwise he might never have been found out. Merrick was taken suddenly Ill at his home, and physicians advised against his being taken to jail. Merrick grew stendily worse, though the cause of his illness was a mystery. On his death bed he revealed his wife's disregard for his affections.

On Saturday, November 24, Mrs. Merrick was married to James Moore, who had been her husband's bosom friend.

Nobody can be found who knows anything about the body having been exhumed, though from Merrick's sudden and peculiar illness it was rumored at the time that he had been poisoned.
